Primary Examiner, Art Unit 1654

Petitions to revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a) or (b), or requests to withdraw the holding of abandonment under 37 CFR 1.181, should be promptly filed to minimize any negative effects on patent term.

Item 7 - Other reasons for holding abandonment:

A telephone call was made by the Examiner on 3/1/10, seeking to confirm the application has been abandonment. The call was made to the number on file for the Attorney of Record, Adrian Kaplan, with the Toronto Law Firm Dimock Stratton LLP. The representative at the Firm indicated Mr. Kaplan is no longer with the Firm. The Application was still with the Firm, however. The Firm indicated they would let Mr. Kaplan know that an Examiner follow-up had been made in the application.

In the present application: The statutory 6 month period ended on 6/8/09, after the final action of 1/7/09.

The After Final response was filed within two months (3/6/09) of the final action.

[The Advisory Action was mailed after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period.]

However, Applicant did not file a Notice of Appeal within the required 6 months from the date of the final action.

The application thereafter, went abandoned.

As stated in the Final Rejection Form Paragraph:

1. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

2. MPEP 1204-TIMELINE FOR APPEAL

The notice of appeal must be filed within the period for reply set in the last Office action, which is normally 3 months for applications. See MPEP § 714.13. *>For example, failure< to remove all grounds of rejection and otherwise place an application in condition for allowance or to file an appeal after final rejection will result in the application becoming abandoned, even if one or more claims have been allowed, except where claims suggested for interference have been copied. The notice of appeal and appropriate fee may be filed up to 6 months from the date of the >Office action (e.g., a final rejection) from which the appeal was taken<, so long as an appropriate petition and fee for an extension of time >under 37 CFR 1.136(a)< is filed either prior to or with the notice of appeal.
